There is a tremendous creative energy that comes from exploring an idea or participating in an activity that ignites our excitement and curiosity! In the spirit of capturing this enthusiasm, you will spend time each week investigating an idea that fuels your passion! Seize this opportunity to learn what YOU want to learn! You will do research to learn more about your topic and then create a project of your choice. According to Ralph Waldo Emerson, "Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm!" Let's create something special, letting our natural interests point the way! Get ready for an adventure!
